1. The term industry 4 or i4.0 originated in _____ .
   a. USA
   b. China and Singapore
   c. Both a and b
   d. None of the above
2. i4.0 encompasses a wide range of advanced technologies, such as:
   a. Digital twins and artificial intelligence
   b. High-speed wireless/wired networks
   c. Cloud computing and virtualization
   d. All of the above
3. IoT are driving force for industry 4.0, however _____ .
   a. Currently they are only being used in smart homes
   b. They are vulnerable to cyber security attacks
   c. They will only be popular in 2030, which might be too late
   d. None of the above

4. Choose the correct statement about Digital Twins.

   a. It is a virtual representation or digital replica (copy) of assets, people, processes, systems, devices, and places

   b. Companies utilize digital twin technology to develop virtual prototypes of new products and get insights

   c. Both a and b

   d. None of the above

5. The concept of Industry 4.0 depends upon connectivity, however, this interconnectivity creates cyber security holes.

   a. True

   b. False

6. Cloud computing is one of the driving forces for industry 4.0 however using DDoS attack, its availability can be compromised. The other attacks can result in _____ of the stored data.

   a. Confidentiality

   b. Integrity

   c. Both a and b

   d. None of the above

7. The main reason for cyber security compromises is employee behavior which can be_____.
   a. Malicious
   b. Unintentional
   c. Both a and b
   d. None of the above
8. The principal problems associated with employee behavior in cyber security includes _____.
   a. Errors and omissions
   b. Fraud
   c. Actions by disgruntled employees
   d. All of the above
9. Choose the correct statement about cyber security awareness, training and education.
   a. Can serve as a deterrent to fraud and actions by disgruntled employees, by increasing employee's knowledge of their accountability and of potential penalties
   b. Employees cannot be asked to attend cyber security awareness program as this will make them liable
   c. Both a and b
   d. None of the above

10. Cyber security awareness policy should include.

a. Participation is required for every employee

b. Everyone will be given sufficient time to participate

c. Both a and b

d. None of the above

11. Cyber security training teaches what people should do and how they should do it.

a. True

b. False

12. Choose the correct social engineering examples.

a. Phone Call: This is John, the System Administrator. What is your password?

b. Email: ABC Bank has noticed a problem with your account, click on the link below and provide the password to resolve it

c. Both a and b

d. None of the above

13. Spear phishing scam is when they target you specifically. They have researched you, they know your family members, where you work, and who is your boss. The chances of fooling you are higher.

a. True.

b. False

14. Some of the top search results in Google are phishing links.

a. True

b. False

15. Social media is full of fake accounts and scammers make it look like it is your real friend.

a. True

b. False

16. In vishing attack, which is made over the telephone, scammers can spoof a phone number that looks identical to a known number, like your bank.

a. True

b. False

17. Choose the correct statement about cyber security compliance.

a. It means following standards and regulatory requirements set by some agency, law or authority group.

b. It means make cyber security challenging both for attackers and users

c. Both a and b

d. None of the above

18. Some benefits of Cybersecurity Compliance include:

a. Helps identify, interpret and prepare for potential data breaches

b. Improves an organization's security position

c. Builds customer confidence and loyalty

d. All of the above

19. Forming a compliance team is necessary when implementing a thorough compliance program.

a. True

b. False

20. Cyber security controls can be technical controls (passwords), or physical (camera and fences).

a. True

b. False